BOARD NOT INTIMIDATED

UPHOLDS BUSSING POLICY

PLAN GROUP EYES PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT

On Friday, August 25, the Antioch Plan Commission viewed preliminary plans for the area's third major housing project.

The property, owned by Walter Curnes contains slightly under 23 acres and is located in the northeast corner of the village near Anita Avenue.

Developers of the project are requesting a change in zoning from R-4 (two family) to R-5 (multiple dwelling) status. Under this zoning, 84 two bedroom apartments; 64 two bedroom condominiums plus 122 two and three bedroom townhouses will be constructed.

Plan Commission members listened with grave interest at the proposals, and continued their discussion to an August 31, meeting.

When they have properly viewed the matter and given their recommendation, the Zoning Board of Appeals will rule on the zoning change request.

Despite numerous verbal exchanges at a hastily called special board meeting on August 31, the Antioch Grade School Board refused to "knuckle under" and voted to uphold its current bussing policy.

The confrontation occurred as a result of two straight days of protests by parents whose children attend the Oakland School and were excluded from receiving a bus ride due to the board's one and one half mile limitation.

According to reports, District Superintendent, Henry Meyer, was put under fire to call the meeting after a group of adults had put their children on a bus in violation of board policy and state school codes. The following day, 27 parents walked their children to the school and demanded a meeting with school officials. Meyer agreed to attempt to call the special board meeting after stipulating that the group must choose a spokesman.

At the meeting, a deluge of abuse was slung at the board regardless, and often the protestors were on the verge of a walkout.

However, school officials received strong support from other parents who advised them not to submit to what they termed "rude and vile protestors."

Following the meeting Meyer labeled the affair a "real mess" and called for support of the school's September 16 referendum. The referendum contains the same proposals (increases of $.35 and $.03 in the district's Education and transportation Funds) that were defeated previously on July 15.

In addition, Meyer reaffirmed the board's decision to reinstate all programs (including bussing) cut earlier in the year if the measure passes.

"It will take time to re-route and may require us to find another bus or two; but it will be done," he said.

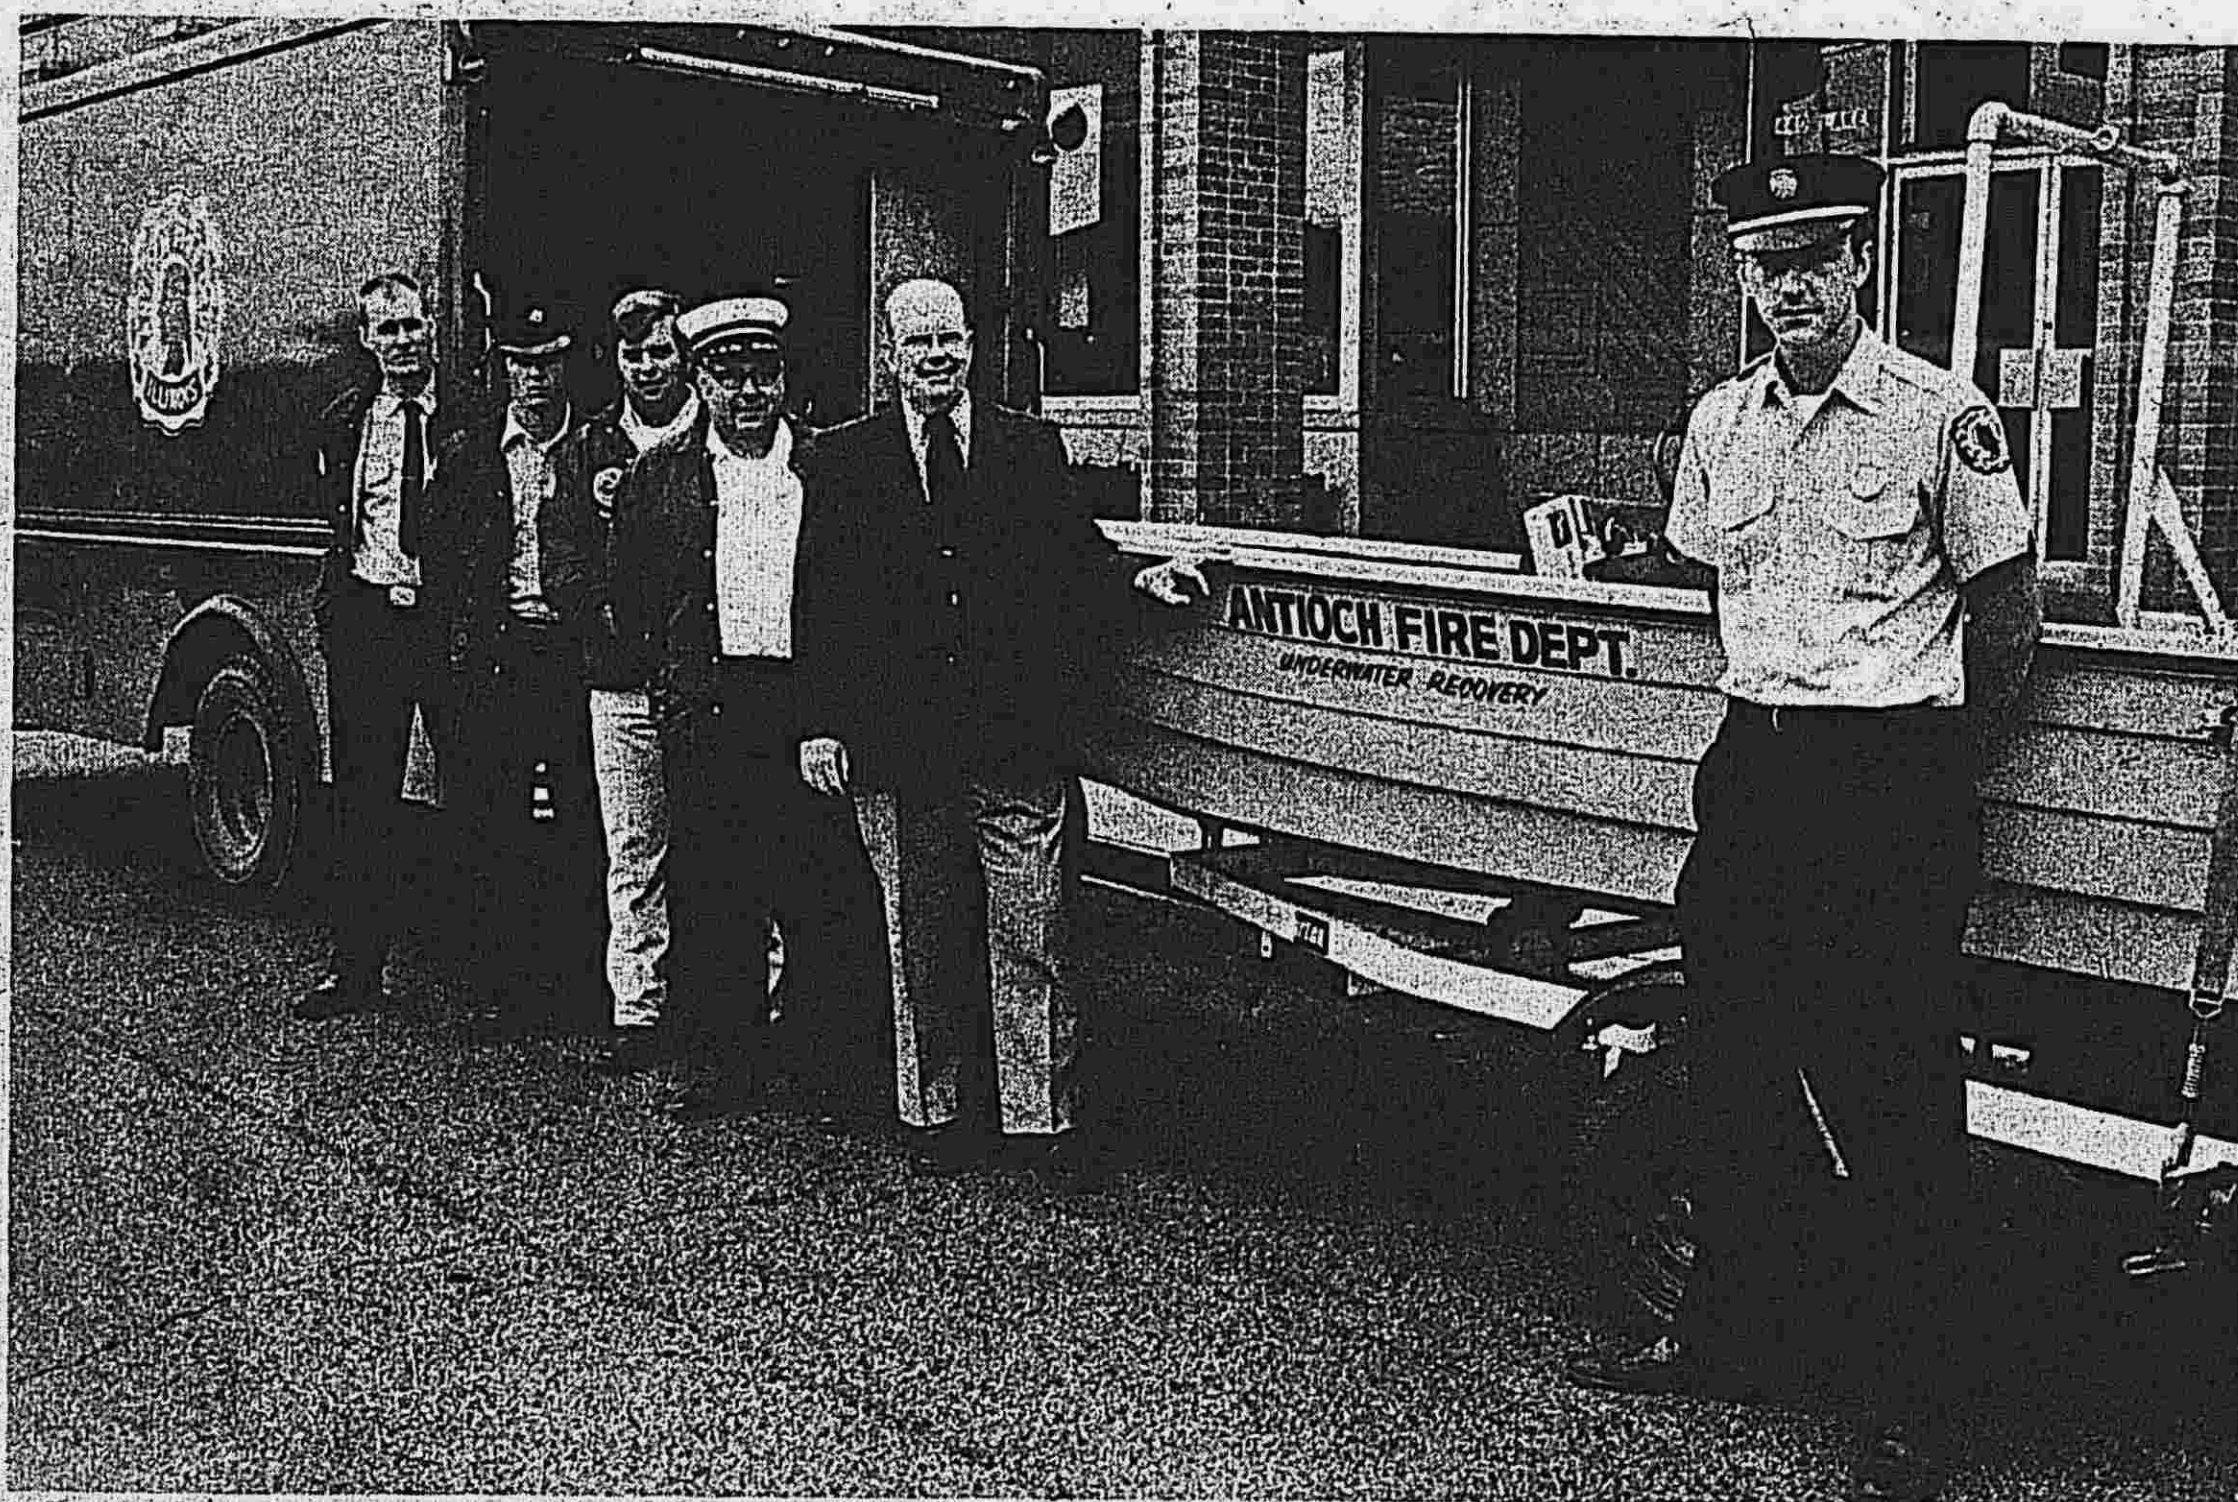

GAME WARDENS SNAG WOULD BE ROBBERS

Two local game wardens spent a harrowing hour as they captured two alleged would-be robbers after a high speed chase on Sunday, August 31.

The men Lloyd Leable and Monte Barmaham, both of Antioch were checking game the morning of the incident when they became suspicious of two vehicles parked on Crawford Road, south of the Village.

Upon investigating, two men bolted from the area in different directions driving a late model for Secretary of State, and is well liked in the area.

The ATRC ELLAphant Award will be presented to the ever popular William E. Brook, Antioch's No. 1 citizen, for his exceptional labors on behalf of the ATRC and the Republican Party. This is the first time in its long history that the ATRC ELLAphant will be given to a non office holder.

The outing will begin with day-long golf, starting at 9 a.m. Club house activities will be in full swing all day, followed by a social hour at 6 p.m., with a sumptuous dinner at 7 p.m.

The awards will be made following dinner, after which Kucharski will make his address. President Anderson will then distribute a big pile of valuable prizes to golfers and non golfers.

NONE INJURED AS TRAIN DERAILS

Four cars of a seventy car Soo Line freight derailed early Wednesday morning, August 31 blocking traffic along Rte 83 and North Avenue for four hours and causing minor damage to rails and rolling stock.

The accident occurred at 1:30 a.m. and was thought by railroad officials to have been caused by cargo shifting in several cars as they turned a steep curve in the line.

Because of the time of the incident, there was little delay to motorists and the tracks were cleared by 5:30 a.m. when another engine pulled the damaged cars to a siding in Lake Villa. There were no injuries.

ABSENTEE BALLOTS AVAILABLE

District 34 officials have announced that they will again be accepting requests for absentee ballots, beginning September 6.

Voting will take place in the Central Business Office of the Antioch Upper Grade School, 800 Highview Drive from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on week days. Cut off date for the voting will be September 15.

Those persons wishing absentee ballots be mailed to them have until Friday, September 9 to make arrangements.

In addition, all four schools will have registrars available to register new voters. Because of a recent supreme court decision, voters for a school referendum need only be a resident of the district and state for 28 days.

WILL THE REAL ABBIE HOFFMAN PLEASE STAND UP?

A question of this nature at first appears to have little connection with the daily happenings in Antioch, but we feel the point is not far-fetched.

Recent activities by parents of grade school children have made a comparison between themselves and the aging, self-styled, pseudo revolutionary a valid one.

While the above mentioned parents would probably take issue with being linked to a man of Hoffman's persuasion, the facts indicate otherwise.

Taking a page from his book of tactics the parents resorted to the same blatant civil disobedience that they encourage their children not to employ.

These parents, more or less 1) hijacked a school bus, 2) staged a demonstration after first cunningly alerting the press corps, 3) demanded a meeting with school officials and 4) at the same gathering used the same sort of vile, offensive language for which Mr. Hoffman is famous or infamous.

The issue at stake - the free bussing of their children to school. While we sympathize with parents about the safety of their children along busy thoroughfares, they are reacting FOUR months after the fact.

A limitation on bussing pick-ups was decided at an April Grade School Board Meeting. In the ensuing period, two newsletters stating the policy along with many news articles have appeared on their doorsteps. The chances that parents were unaware of the policy shift are practically nil.

This type of wanton disregard for authority would draw heavy criticism from the same persons involved if it occurred at some distant point or was perpetrated by shaggy haired youths.

Apparently these parents work under the crippling double standard of self concern, but any realization of this fact is probably too much to ask for. It must be easier or more appealing to react without thought than to participate in the tedium of school meetings and the boredom of parents groups and P.T.A.'s.

Editor:

Mr. Mort's, the 'nude dancing club' in Round Lake, is still running wide open, says Ken Clark, Democratic candidate for State's Attorney. And he thinks he knows why.

"I went out the other night to check on a story I'd heard and found it was business-as-usual," said Clark, "but there is one thing different -- and it may account for why the nude dancing wasn't closed down as Mr. Hoogasian, the present Lake County State's Attorney, promised it would be."

"There is a big new neon sign at Mr. Mort's," says Clark, "about 30 feet high with three huge neon panels. The sign was designed and built by the Nu-Lite Sign Company and it looks like a pretty expensive one. Mr. Hoogasian is part owner and Vice-President of the Nu-Lite Sign Company. If that's not a pay-off, it will do until a more explicit example comes along."

Clark quoted from a newspaper story of May 3, 1971, in which Mr. Hoogasian said, "We have moved swiftly to put an end to nude dancing." Quoting further from the article "If there are any subsequent violations by anyone," Hoogasian said, "my office will pursue all legal avenues to stop such vulgar exhibitions. I will not tolerate such flagrant violations of common decency while I am State's Attorney."

"It appears that Hoogasian has once more dispensed his brand of justice. Nude dancing is not allowed in Lake County," said Clark, "unless it's performed under a Nu-Lite Sign!"

Following is an answer to Mr. Clark from Jack Hoogasian

Dear Ken:

You have taken to the newspapers to call to my attention and to the attention of the public alleged nude dancing at Mr. Mort's, a tavern in Round Lake.

As you know, I have in the past stopped nudity at Mr. Mort's and forced other obscenities out of the County. In fact, you were a member of my staff at the time I stopped such performances. You were then and are now aware of my strong feelings against such practices.

Knowing of my attitude and having witnessed such obscenities, I am surprised and cannot understand why you haven't filed a complaint. However, it is not too late. I would appreciate it if you would come to my office and sign a complaint so that we may proceed with dispatch in the matter of preparing and serving the proper papers.

Very truly yours,

Jack Hoogasian
State's Attorney of Lake County

"PICK UP A CHILD AND SAVE A LIFE"

Dear Editor and People of Antioch:

What is the price of one or more of our children's lives to play our adult game of blackmail in this Grade School Tax Issue?

I am a taxpayer in the Antioch Grade School District who has looked with favor and support of most of the administration's decisions concerning our schools. But why should small children have to suffer for the inadequacies of an adult administration to cut corners in the wisest places.

I'm referring to the decision of forcing all children from age 5 up who live within 1 1/2 miles of Oakland Grade School to walk along the roads surrounding the school during the busy time of day when cars and trucks are hurrying to meet their daily schedules.

NO effort has even been made for safeguarding these children in any way. There was NOT advance publicity to these affected motorists that school was starting this week and to watch in this area of travel for walking children. NO "20 Mile Speed Limit" and NO "Slow, School Children" signs have been erected anywhere within the 1 1/2 miles. NO crosswalks have been painted for the safety of these children even at the corner by the school!

Yet we as taxpayers and adults are supposed to assume that our brains are on the debit side because we are having to think we are unwise ones for

Dear Mr. Rush:

On behalf of the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary and myself, I wish to express our deep appreciation to your newspaper, The Antioch News, for helping our organization to again attain first place honors in state publicity competition at the state American Legion Auxiliary convention.

We fully realize that if it were not for your gracious cooperation in printing all our publicity, these high honors could not have been achieved.

Thank you very much from all our members in Lake County! The 10th District American Legion has 5500 members and the 10th District Auxiliary has 2200 members all located throughout this county.

The Antioch American Legion Auxiliary No. 748 and I also add our most grateful thanks for all your many courtesies!

Sincerely yours,

Del Jahneke

considering valid fears for these children. The loss of even one life is too expensive a price to pay for blackmail. The buses all pass this area, why not pick up a child and save a life?

This kind of thoughtlessness is what defeats our tax issues. People wonder, "What is going wrong in our school that its chief product (our students) should suffer in well-fare?"

Let's have some truthful publicity about the economic problems of the school - not threats or blackmail because we really don't know where what is falling short. Let's not get so emotional about our false priorities that the majority suffer.

Blackmail Point 2: If the school has a full or complete physical education program, why should taxes have to support any athletic team for the glory of those on the first team? Isn't it more important for our majority to enjoy physical fitness?

Blackmail Point 3: The "Grade School Band". This is a wonderful opportunity for any so gifted child also. However, why should taxes subsidize the music lessons that could be assumed financially by the parent who wishes his child to pursue that avenue?

This is what I have drawn from the tax issue. We should increase our taxes to pay for the programs cut that should be paying for themselves. Eliminating the needed buses was too juvenile an idea to even have been comprehended by any adult.

Let's have some clear facts about what is suffering that affects the majority of the students receiving a quality all round-grade school education. Then more facts about how the money is to be spent, then we can approach the polls with a more rational frame of mind concerning the true issues, and vote with conscience knowing what we voted for or against.

Name withheld upon request

Dear Mr. Rush:

Every week the happenings of my former hometown have gladdened my days, yet, I was saddened by the recent School referendums which you justly and courageously supported.

In the depth of the depression of the 1930's the OLD ANTIOCH of that era brought vocal and instrumental music education to its youth. Even two music teachers were hired. I know, because I was one of them. Twenty years of harmonious music awareness existed. Hightened by your pre eminent work of another twenty years the instrumental music reached its peak, but seemingly found not the support of the NEW ANTIOCH of 1971-72. The OLD ANTIOCH, the Gem of the Lake Region, had a profound civic pride and strived to be an attractive resort, a town of fine homes, churches and schools. I sincerely hope that the real spirit of that dear town will restore all that was maimed by the complacency of the many who sought the ideal place to live but are reluctant to pay their share. Perhaps the future will restore the deserved pre eminence of the schools as they existed prior to the fateful year of 1972.

With best wishes
Hans Von Holwede

Linemen In Non-Contact Drills

NELSON OPTIMISTIC DESPITE LACK OF VETERANS

Varsity football head coach, Roy Nelson, isn't painting any rosy pictures of his 1972 gridiron corps, but don't be taken unawares if they are in the thick of the conference race near the end of the season.

"Graduation has hurt us," he said. "With only eight veterans returning we'll be thin at some positions."

Even though the talent may not be over abundant, Nelson does have several things going for him. In keeping with his steady quiet manner along the sidelines, the 1972 Sequoits will not be a typically youthful and boisterous group.

"We're a quiet team this year," he said. "We don't have the rah-rah kind of player who is always yelling or talking it up."

However, Nelson said this may not be a bad omen. "I'm impressed with their overall attitude. They're a very dedicated group."

"With this kind of attitude we'll win our share of ball games."

The weak point in Nelson's squad appears to be the before mentioned lack of depth. The Sequoits are thin in interior linemen due to graduation, injuries and the multitude of troubles that turn a coach's hair prematurely grey.

Another sore point is the lack of an established "star" or meal ticket. The loss of all conference fullback, Greg Crutchfield, will probably be the hardest question-mark to fill. Crutchfield was the key man of last year's team and often made them look better than they actually were.

Prospects for filling these two critical areas are encouraging, but not overly impressive.

The interior line will be bolstered by the return of veterans Glen Amundsen, Doug Banwart, Ed Olschlager and Tim Staples. And yet injuries to these and other promising players could make for a tough day for the team's two left handed quarterbacks.

Senior letterman, Fred Popp, (5'9" - 159 lbs) will apparently fill the starting berth. Popp is a fair field general and has good reactions and a passable throwing arm. However, his big asset will be the years experience he gained last year.

Stringbean junior Mike Gutowski (6'1" - 153 lbs) could be a capable back up man, but much depends on how he reacts to pressure.

The bulk of the ball carrying chores will be placed on the shoulders of fullback Dave Piernon and Half back Tom Phaeler. The latter appeared to camp underweight after a strenuous summer and may require a few weeks of additional time.

The usually reliable Sequoit kicking game may not be on call this season. Graduation took veterans Ken Tell and Jim Revelle, But Nelson is optimistic that a replacement can be found. "We've had quite a few boys trying out and some look fairly good. I'll make my mind up later in the practice sessions."

However, even though the outlook isn't bright, Nelson is optimistic. "This will be an interesting season if we're healthy. The boys with heart will develop as the season progresses."

"We'll need a few breaks early in the season, but I think we'll surprise a few people."

LA PLANT'S REQUEST ANNEXATION

Antioch Zoning Board of Appeals members will meet Tuesday, September 12 to hear the petition of Homer and Frances LaPlant for re-zoning and annexation of their property south of the village.

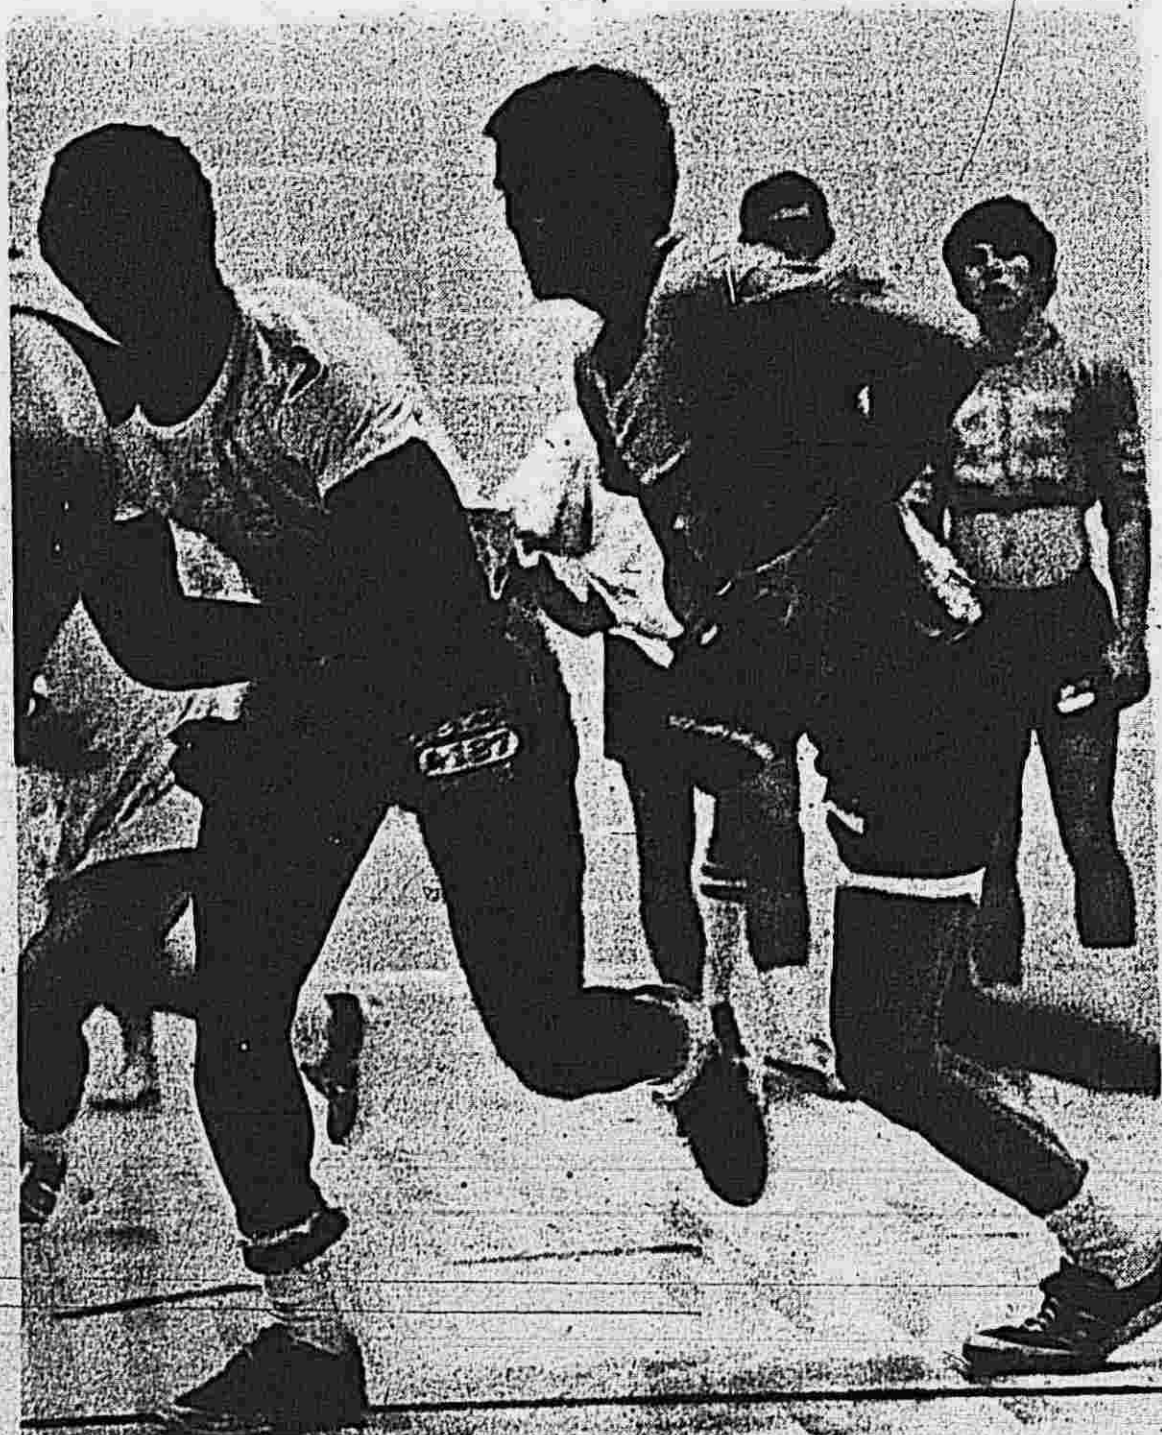

The four acre plot located east of Rte 83 and south of Rte 173, while not inside the village limits is being considered by the board because of a pre-annexation rider attached to the zoning request.

The LaPlant's are asking that their land be accepted into the village and the zoning changed to R-5 to permit construction of multiple family dwellings.

According to county zoning, the land is currently zoned residential.

Antioch's Village Hall will play host to the 8:00 p.m. meeting.

NEW ABSENTEE POLICY ENFORCED AT HIGH SCHOOL

In an effort to cut down the truancy rate, the Antioch High School Administration has developed new guidelines regulating the procedures of absenteeism.

As outlined, the plan requires a morning phone call from parents the day their child will not be present. Phone calls are to be made between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., either to the attendance officer or to the School Nurse.

Arthur Blecke, school Dean of Students, said the new policy would streamline attendance procedures and assist an understaffed office.

CLOWN CLUB HONORS DICK MAJOR

An Antioch man was recently honored for his acts of service to the community and its citizens. Mr. Richard Major, 496 Lake Vista Ave., was presented with a Foster Father Award by the Tully Clown Club on Friday, August 25.

The club made the presentation after having entertained in Lake Villa at a home for retired persons. Major received the award at the Fox Lake Food Store where he is employed.

Master of ceremonies for the event was Oscar, played by Jim Stanglund Jr. Others participating were: Socko - Sandy Valentine; Jo-Jo - Dean Claesson; Whoppie - Tracy Tier; Toad by Mark Tobin. Johnny Stanglund played various parts and helped introduce the groups newest number, the "Mad Polack".

Vickie Claesson, one of the older performers, played Mae West and took the lead in some of the solos with the help of some of the clowns.

Puppets were handled by Oscar, Socko, Toad, Whoppie and Pewee, who played by Carol Nickolas, stole the show. Carol also drew praise for her songs as sung to Humpty Dumpty, one of the Stanglund brothers.

Spanky, who had been such a hit at prior shows recently resigned, but both coach Mike Tullemello and other clowns desperately want him to return.

station wagon and a large rental truck.

After checking the scene, Leable and Barmaham discovered a Massey-Ferguson tractor valued at $11,000 hidden in the thick brush along the road.

Taking up the chase, the men sped after the station wagon and cornered the driver after a flight that reached speeds in excess of 100 m.p.h.

The second man, allegedly a brother of the man captured reportedly returned to the site of the hidden tractor looking from him and was also apprehended.

Robert and Al Petersen, of Petersen Brothers Implement Co., owners of the tractor said the wardens merited high praise for their efforts.

"They never get credit enough for what they do," the two men said. "Usually they only get knocked for not finding illegal hunters or fishermen."

STERN ANNOUNCES ABSENTEE BALLOTS

Absentee ballot applications are available for the November 7th election in all Township and Village Halls, as well as at the County Clerk's Office in Waukegan. Grace Mary Stern announced today.

"Even though the law says we may not process them until thirty days before the election," said the County Clerk. "We are eager to get them out, and into the hands of those youngsters who may be leaving for college in the next couple of weeks."

Anyone who will be away from his residence on Election Day, may apply for an absentee ballot. The application must be filled out by the voter, his signature must be notarized, and the application returned to the County Clerk's office between October 9th and November 2nd to allow enough time for the mails to carry the ballot to the voter and permit him to return it. The application will be processed immediately, and a ballot with instructions for voting will be sent to the address specified.

"We will, of course, send an application to anyone who asks, by mail," said Mrs. Stern. "But we are trying to make the applications as available as possible. This week we are sending some to the banks and to the Post Offices of the county."

Every public place should have them available."

Once the application has been processed and the ballot received, the voter must see that it gets back to the County Clerk's office by November 6th, so it can be sent out to the voter's own polling place on Election Day to be counted with those cast in person at that precinct.

In-person absentee balloting will be available at the Clerk's Office (Rm. 101-A) in Waukegan, from October 7th, until November 6th, 9-5 weekdays and 9-12 on Saturdays.

HIGH SCHOOL INTRODUCES NEW GRADE SYSEM

Students at the Antioch High School are urged not to be concerned if their grades appear late in coming. The lapse is not theirs, but due to a new grading system just installed.

Grades will now be recorded on a nine week basis, instead of the former six week system. Reports for the first nine week period will be distributed during the week of November 13 with semester grades returned the week of January 29.

In addition, any student who is performing at a marginal or failing rate (D or F) will receive a cautionary letter after the first half of the grading period. After being turned over to the parents, arrangements should be made to contact the teacher. Parents may request student status at any time by calling Pupil Personnel Service at the school.

CLC AWARDED GRANTS BY U.S. DEPARTMENTS OF HEALTH & JUSTICE

Only students enrolled in the Associate Degree Nursing program qualifying them for certification as a registered nurse will be eligible for the scholarship and loans supplied by the grant.

The College also received $11,550 from the U.S. Department of Justice's Law Enforcement Assistance Administration for the 1971-73 school year. The money will be used in CLC's law enforcement program which offers both an associate degree and a certificate.

Under terms of the grant, only practicing, full-time police officers may apply for scholarship funds covering tuition and book fees. Part-time police officers and anyone desiring a career in law enforcement may apply for loans generated by the grant.

According to Sam Mazman, CLC director of financial aids, this year's grant compares favorably to that of the 1971-72 school year in which only $3,800 was made available. But the college must have a greater number of applicants in order to use all the money, he said.

NEWS DEADLINE
Monday Afternoon

Unless by special permission or by special request. OR last minute happenings.

Along the Way with Annie Mae

Here's hoping everyone had a fun and safe Labor Day weekend. Since the Antioch News staff disappeared the week before for a "holiday" we truly "labored" on Monday in order to get the paper to your door on time this week. The Staff scattered as should be. Some stayed home and prepared for the opening of school - others repaired cars and still others vacationed. John our Sports Writer, spent a week in Minnesota loafing and sunning and Joe and Barb Rush went to Gettysburg visiting friends and the highlight of the trip was Parents Weekend at Annapolis where son Gary is a "Plebe". He is happy and that makes it all worthwhile.

A friendly chat with Belinda Dittman this weekend revealed that for the first time in years, she and Al have been able to vacation and relax with no worries! Working and loafing at their cabin in Northern Wisconsin took much of their time and for one week, Belinda took an advanced class on Modern Math while Al just relaxed. Now back to the "Old Grind"!

Antiochians have really been scattering this summer. Ron and Mary Cunningham went on a canoe trip with several couples awhile ago and just last week they spent a week in Washington at a Postal Convention. Grandparents - Mr. and Mrs. M. Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. Chas Wertz acted as babysitters for Sandy and Julie.

Also recent travelers were Ed and Arlene Olszewski who spent time in August on a vacation to New York and New England States and Shirley and Bernie Gutowski who spent the Labor Day weekend at Door County.

Can't forget the get well wishes for Don Amundsen and Bob Miller. We are thinking "light" for the both of them. Also get wells to Mary DeStefano and Verna Thompson.

Birthday wishes go to Kelly Jo Zeilen who celebrates No. 1 on the 6th and Amanda Carleen Sherman on the 7th. To Dr. L.V. Madden on the 12th and also a first birthday for Darlene Rene Freitag on the 13th.

Remember all of you College Students - let us know when to refile your address plates - and if not - Why Not. Drop us a line and give us your college address so you can keep up with the "Hometown News." All it takes is a $5.00 check and your address. We pull the plate in the summer and give you the 3 months next fall. You get a full year's subscription.

A reminder! the pool will be open weekends thru September.

Support your children's school activities - See ya at the first PTA meeting.

SAFE TV COLOR

It's an old question but we still are asked at BLANCHETTE RADIO & TV 'is Color TV safe to sit near'?

Back in 1966 some of the big Color sets were emitting Xrays above the recommended limit.

BLANCHETTE'S TV TOPICS

In 1968 Congress passed the Radiation control Act which polices the standards of all makes. Current surveys show that all manufacturers are abiding by the law. The tests are strict. You can sit and watch the new Color TVs from any distance instead of the previously recommended six foot minimum with complete safety.

A big part of our service includes Color TV and we can test the older sets for Xray emission. If you're not sure, phone 395-6400 the next time you need maintenance service and we'll include it.

NEW REQUIREMENTS FOR PROSPECTIVE FEMALE SPOUSE

As of October 1st, 1972 all (female) applicants for a marriage license in Illinois will be required to present - in addition to the standard laboratory report and physician's certificate proving the bearer to be free of Venereal Disease - a physician's certificate that the woman is immune or has been immunized to Rubella (German Measles).

There are two exceptions to this new law: if the woman is already pregnant and has a physician's certificate confirming that pregnancy, a license will be issued without such statement (though the standard VDRL test will be required); the (Rubella) affidavit will not be required when the woman making application files with the County Clerk her affidavit certifying that such immunizations are contrary to her religious convictions, and setting forth information relating either to her membership in a religious denomination which includes such convictions in its teachings, or to other facts upon which her convictions are based.

Social Notes

by Del Jahneke

Congratulations to Mrs. Frank Miller, Route 3, Antioch, on her "green thumb" abilities, for she has some giant size sunflowers growing in her yard. The tallest one is 14½ feet high, with a ten inch pod! Can anybody top that record in Antioch?

The Harold Newyear's of Waukegan, formerly of Lake Villa, entertained the Ray Rathmann's, Oakwood Knolls, last Saturday afternoon and evening.

Memories, memories - as they drift across the years! Del and Ed Jahneke, Sr., enjoyed a wonderful evening at the 36th class reunion of Del's 1936 Downers Grove High School graduation, held at the Drake Oak Brook Hotel in Oakbrook, September 2nd. Some 150 guests were present traveling from Morocco (a U.S.A.F. Colonel) and many couples were there from California, Oregon, Texas, Ohio, Penn., New York, Florida, Michigan, Wisconsin, etc. T'was a good thing name tags were provided - otherwise, some of the classmates wouldn't have been recognized! Six of the class teachers were there, as well as the high school superintendant, but no one had to worry about getting that dreaded "pink slip"! It was an evening long to be treasured and cherished by all there!

The Bernard De Vries, Trevor Road, Antioch, accompanied by their oldest daughter, Mrs. Dan Martin of North Chicago, spent the previous weekend at Sparta, Wisconsin, visiting Bernie's parents, the Samuel De Vries. In the meanwhile, Bernie and Helen's second oldest daughter and her husband (the Robert Janunas' of Waukegan) took the younger two De Vries daughters Colleen and Dianna, camping at a nice county park in the Rockford area.

NIXON SUPPORTERS CANVASS AREA FOR VOTES

The Republican election campaign got underway in earnest in Lake Villa last Saturday, August 26, as scores of volunteers for Nixon rang doorbells as part of a door-to-door canvass aimed at contacting at least 75 percent of all households in the township and throughout the state.

Tony Leisner, of Lake Villa, who led what he described as a "Blitz" canvassing effort by the volunteers, said its purpose was to identify supporters of the President and to be sure they are registered to vote. He said the voters will be contacted again to be sure they are able to get to the polls on election day, Nov. 7, or receive absentee ballots.

Leisner said the program, which calls for door-to-door canvassing of 2,600,000 households in the state, has been developed by the Illinois Committee for the re-election of the President, headed by state campaign chairman Thomas J. Houser and has the endorsement of Clark MacGregor, chairman of the National Committee for the Re-election of the President.

ANNUAL DEM GOLF DAY SEPT. 13th

The Democrats plan to hold their annual Golf Day get-together at the Chevy Chase Country Club, Route 45 between Lake-Cook and Deerfield Roads, on Wednesday, September 13.

Consisting of a whole day of golf, followed by an evening banquet (cocktails, 6 p.m. - dinner, 7 p.m.) the event has traditionally been attended by many party dignitaries. This year, State Auditor Michael J. Howlett, the Democratic Party's candidate for Secretary of State, will be the featured speaker. Attendance is by donation ($15 per person). Tickets may be obtained at Democratic Headquarters, 215 Madison Street, Waukegan (244-2870).

Golf Day Co-Chairmen are Peter A. Staben of Waukegan, Chairman of the Waukegan City Democratic Organization, and Terrance P. Link of North Chicago, a Deputy Lake County Clerk.

According to Herbert L. "Hub" Stern, Lake County Chairman, a record turn-out is expected. "This is a presidential year and we will also be voting for a full slate of candidates. Interest is running high," Stern said.

Said Staben: "Not only do we expect all of our local candidates - both those running for county office and those running for legislative office - to be in attendance, but in all probability most state candidates will also be on hand. In fact, inquiries have been received from Washington and there is even the possibility that a prominent national figure will honor us with his attendance."

RETIRED DEPUTY ASSESSOR INDICTED

A fourteen count criminal indictment was returned today, August 31, 1972, against Matthew Johannes, age 62 of 19 Oak Lane Drive, Lake Villa, Illinois.

Mr. Johannes who formerly worked in the personal property tax division of the Cook County Assessor's Office was charged with using the mails to carry on the act of bribery.

Each count of the indictment represents the receipt of a bribe through the U.S. Mails from November 1967 through August 1970.

If convicted Johannes could be sentenced up to 70 years in jail.

AIDS FOR THE BLIND AT DOWNEY

Eligible veterans who have severe visual handicaps may obtain low vision aids and other aids for the blind by applying for them at the Downey Veterans Administration hospital.

Dr. Aaron S. Mason, director of the hospital, said the VA in its effort to improve service, has centralized supply of canes, braille wrist and pocket watches, braille writers and braille paper in its prosthetic distribution center in Denver.

Orders received from any of the VA's 167 hospitals or any of the outpatient clinics are sent there for processing. Dr. Mason says the supplies are sent directly to the veteran.

The director said in requesting items the veterans should contact the hospital or clinic nearest them. They are advised not to contact the distribution center in Denver as this would only delay processing of requests.

Christian Science Churches

Jesus proved the nothingness of sickness when he healed the man with the withered hand in Mark 3rd.

This is brought out in the Bible Lesson - Sermon entitled "Substance" at Christian Science church services Sunday.

Citations from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy include this statement: "When the substance of Spirit appears in Christian Science, the nothingness of matter is recognized. Where the spirit of God is, and there is no place where God is not, evil becomes nothing, -- the opposite of the something of Spirit."

Members of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Rte 173 and Harden, Antioch, Illinois invite the public to come to the Sunday services held at 11 a.m.

Commissioner Joseph I. Woods, the 1972 Chairman of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation's Northern Illinois Chapter fund-raising campaign, discusses campaign plans with National Campaign chairman Hugh O'Brien during a recent stopover in Chicago by Mr. O'Brien. The Northern Illinois chapter campaign covers an eighteen-county area and runs from September 10 through 18, 1972.

WOODS CHAIRS FIBROSIS PLEA

Commissioner Joseph I. Woods was today named Chairman of the 1972 Campaign of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation's Northern Illinois Chapter. Mr. David Shapiro, Chapter President, made the announcement.

This marks an unprecedented sixth time that Commissioner Woods has taken the active leadership of a campaign that raises funds throughout an eighteen-county area of Illinois for research and medical services.

This year, the campaign will run officially from September 10 through 18 in most areas, although volunteers will also be calling on families after September 18 in some places.

"Over 35,000 volunteer campaigners in our area will be working to raise funds needed to help the over 5 million children in this country who suffer from cystic fibrosis and other respiratory diseases," says Commissioner Woods. "Some of the uses for these funds include patient services, professional, educational, and clinical & basic research," he adds.

"The National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation operates over 120 Centers throughout the country where services to young patients and their families are available. It is at these centers that the latest research work can be applied, and where children with respiratory disorders can be diagnosed and helped. In addition to cystic fibrosis, other respiratory diseases diagnosed and treated include asthma with lung damage, chronic bronchitis, and juvenile emphysema.

According to the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, approximately one baby in every thousand is born with cystic fibrosis, a hereditary disease passed on through the genes. Advanced treatment of cystic fibrosis now enables many youngsters born with the disease to live well into young adulthood, but there is still no known cure for the disease.

With a Stern Eye

George Bell was pacing up and down my office, running his fingers through his hair. He wasn't angry, or perplexed, or anxious; just restless. He is the Fremont Township Supervisor, as well as an elected County Board member and also Chairman of the Finance Committee. In past years that job has gone to the man with the most clout - not necessarily the most competence. In fairness however, Lloyd Murrie who has been that committee's chairman for a number of years, was not bad at his job. But he didn't have Bell's business and fiscal background. And as Murrie's influence was no less this year than any other - Ron Cole's appointment of George Bell to that important job was a satisfying surprise.

"You know Grace, I'm for the abolishment of Township government." "That's heresy to say around here, George. Abolish Township government? You would do away with that local, grass-roots, closest-to-the-people political pyramid? What would your buddies on the tenth floor think if they could hear you say that?"

"They know what I think. And they do think it's heresy." He pulled a hand through his hair again. "Take the post of Highway Commissioner, for instance. Ours is a fine conscientious young man. But the equipment alone - that piece we have, cost about $18,000 and it's used maybe 11 hours a year. Now you multiply that by the eighteen townships - add in the equipment owned by the County Highway Department - it's just ridiculous."

I didn't have much to add to that.

"Why when we have an occasional big snow - you have the State snow plows going down the state roads, plowing. Just ahead of them is a County truck, with its plow raised - on its way to plow a County Road. Further back comes the Township truck - plow up - on its way to plow a couple of miles of Township Road."

I grunted.

"People call me all the time in the winter - 'I just saw the plow go by,' they say 'but it didn't plow'. And they raise Cain with me. What they saw was the State truck - or the County truck. God knows."

"I've written a couple of columns on why we should abolish Township government," I offered by way of encouragement. But he was pursuing a thought of his own.

"The Welfare part of the work - eighteen supervisors, unqualified for the job - unable to follow through and make a proper investigation. People come in for assistance - and what do any of us know about how to do the job properly?" He snorted. "The State should be handling all of that."

I nodded agreeably.

"The Assessor's problems are a little different. I'm not sure right now how that could be incorporated into one of the other strata of government. But one thing - too many Assessors are in the Real Estate business. Too many."

"Kind of a conflict of interest, wouldn't you say?"

"And that's got to be a conflict of interest," he continued over me. "It would be a little more complicated for the County to take over -"

"Why not have field people working out of the Supervisor of Assessments Office here in Waukegan?"

George only shook his head. The answer will come to him no doubt.

"What is your feeling about Township Auditors?" I asked. "I mean, heaven knows they're not really auditors at all. Good decent people with a reputation for integrity and a warm feeling for the Supervisor who slates them on the ticket and whose bills they approve in the course of their job. But auditors?"

I waited for a response but there wasn't one. I looked out into the main office and noticed it was totally empty. I checked my watch. "George, it's after 5:15, and I still have to drive home and get dinner."

"I'm going to do an article on this subject - a series of articles on 'Why Township Government Should Be Abolished,' said Bell. "I've been meaning to get at it."

"Yes," I said, grabbing my purse and newspaper. "Me too."

MIKE HOWLETT IN LAKE COUNTY

Michael J. Howlett, for the past 12 years State Auditor of Public Accounts, and now Democratic candidate for the office of Secretary of State, will be campaigning in Lake County on September 13 and 14, according to an announcement made today by Terrance P. Link, Howlett's Lake County Campaign Coordinator.

Howlett will arrive in Lake County late Wednesday afternoon, September 13, and is scheduled as the principal speaker at the Democrats' annual Golf Day outing at Chevy Chase Country Club, Route 45 between Lake-Cook And Deerfield Roads. This event has traditionally been the Democrats' biggest fund raising effort. For a donation of $15, ticket holders can have a day of golf and attend the evening banquet (cocktails, 6 p.m., dinner, 7 p.m.). Tickets are available at Democratic Headquarters, 215 Madison St., Waukegan (Phone 244-2870).

Howlett will then spend the night in Waukegan in order to be present at a private breakfast scheduled for the following morning.

After a morning of person-to-person campaigning, Howlett will be the guest of honor at a special luncheon in North Chicago hosted by that city's mayor, Leo Kukla. The luncheon will take place at the Talk of the Town Restaurant, 918 22nd St., North Chicago, at 12:00 noon. Tickets are available either from Mayor Kukla's office in City Hall (North Chicago) or from Terrance P. Link at 689-4063.

Then, after an afternoon of personal campaigning in Lake County, Howlett will return to Springfield.

NUDE DANCING ALLEGED

Ken Clark of Lindenhurst, Democratic candidate for candidate for State's Attorney has charged his opponent with alleged involvement in a Round Lake nightclub that reportedly features nude dancing.

Clark, a former assistant to incumbent Jack Hoogasian said that Hoogasian's involvement in a light company that recently erected a new sign for the club "if not a payoff, will do until a more explicit example comes along."

Hoogasian admitted owning interest in the firm, (Nu Lite Sign Co.) but denied any involvement in the club. "My opponent has gone far beyond fair comment," he said. "It is a reckless statement by him based on his desire to be State's Attorney."

ILLINOIS DRIVERS FAIL LICENSE TEST

Under a state law, which went into effect Jan. 1, 1969, all of Illinois 6.6 million drivers will be retested by 1978. During the first year, 81,714 drivers failed the written exam and about 14,900 motorists lost their licenses after failing the examination three times. Experts explain - "Some people think that just because they've been driving for 10, 20 or 30 years, they don't have to know the new Rules of the Road. They figure they know it all."

If your license expires within the next year, you may be one of the many thousands that will be re-examined.

Now there is good news if you're nervous about taking the written examination. You can now purchase your own sample self-scoring test paper, complete with questions, answers and road signs to help you pass the State exam on that important day. Introductory price just $6 plus 75 cents handling. (Check or money order only) Mail to:

Migratory Waterfowl Seasons Will Open at Sunrise Oct. 28

Illinois' migratory waterfowl hunting season will open Oct. 28 this year, in regulations approved by the Conservation Advisory Board, announced Henry N. Barkhausen, director of the Department of Conservation.

The duck season will run Oct. 28 through Dec. 16, and the goose season Oct. 28 through Jan. 5 in all but four Illinois counties—Alexander, Jackson, Union and Williamson. In the latter southern Illinois goose area the season will open Nov. 20 and close when a quota of 24,000 geese is reached, or on Jan. 5, whichever comes first.

Legal shooting hours will be from sunrise to sunset. Illinois hunters will once again determine duck bag limits by the point system.

A hunter may shoot ducks until the last duck shot reaches or exceeds 100 points. Point values per bird are: mallard hens, black ducks, wood ducks and hooded mergansers, 90 points each; mallard drakes, pintail hens and ring-necked ducks, 20 points each. All other species are valued at 10 points. The possession limit for ducks will be the maximum number of birds which could have legally been taken in two days.

There is no point value for coots; the bag limit is 15 per day and 30 in possession. The coot season will run concurrent with the duck season.

It will be unlawful for hunters to take canvasback or redhead ducks.

"The U.S. Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife are not allowing canvasback and redheads to be hunted because of the decrease in numbers of these species," said Jim Lockart, supervisor of the division of wildlife resources for the department.

"They have not responded to the restrictive hunting practices of the past."

"Environmental changes are forcing the bird to adapt to new nesting habits and these birds are not responding to the new conditions as they should," he added.

Bag limit set for geese is five per day, of which only two can be Canada geese or white-fronted geese, or one of each. The other three geese the hunter is allowed must be of other species, such as blue or snow geese. Possession limit after the first day's hunt is five geese, with no more than four being Canada geese and no more than two being white-fronts.

"We increased the number of days for goose hunting outside the quota zone this year because the information from the goose permit last year showed no excessive harvest," Lockart said. "However, after the duck season closes we will keep a close watch on the goose harvests out of the quota zone, and if the harvest appears excessive we may have to go back to the shorter season."

Lockart said the goose season was opening at a later date in the quota zone than it normally does.

"The reason we are opening later is that many of our geese come in from Horicon Marsh in Wisconsin late in November and these may be separate population segments," he said. "We do not want an overharvest of an early segment of any one of the populations because it could damage the population for many years."

TICKS & FLEAS

By: Raymond Minor, D.V.M.
Manager of Veterinarian
Services-Norden Laboratories

Nothing can be more fun than paling around with your dog or cat during the warm days of summer.

But one thing you should keep in mind, particularly during the humid summer and early fall, is the presence of external parasites - ticks and fleas - that make a home on the skin and fur of your pet.

These parasites can drop off your pet and crawl into cracks or crevices, under your rugs, floor boards or furniture and lay eggs - causing serious problems.

Once this happens, the pests are extremely difficult to eliminate without drastic cleaning and insecticidal treatment.

Without exception, ticks are dependent upon your animal's blood for survival. Most pets tolerate a few ticks but become irritated and restless as the numbers increase. They often try to rid themselves of the pests by rubbing, scratching, licking and biting.

By doing this, they aggravate the situation and the irritated raw areas become secondarily infected - as smaller ticks can become imbedded in the swelling tissue.

Toxic effects can cause weight loss, failure to eat and lethargy.

Frequently, ticks attach themselves to the ears, neck and flanks but they can also be found all over the body, from the larva state ("seed ticks") to the engorged female, easily detectable by the eye.

To rid your pet of ticks when only a few are present, you can simply pluck them off, taking care that this is done without breaking off the mouthparts or "head." If this does occur, you must use care to remove the broken parts.

If the ticks are more numerous, additional measures will be necessary. In this case, washing with proper medication is usually more effective than sprays or dusts as it penetrates the hair better and reaches all the ticks. In the cases where larvae are present, the difficulty of removal is such that the pet should be taken to your veterinarian for treatment.

Any abscess or ulcerated area, of course, also should be treated with appropriate medication from the veterinarian.

Fleas are small, wingless parasites that feed on blood and, in feeding, cause intense irritation and inflammation to the pet by constant biting and the secretion of a toxic, allergenic saliva.

In a hypersensitive pet, flea bites produce intense itching. The pet becomes restless and bites and scratches to relieve the irritation. By doing so, an acute "hot spot" or chronic skin inflammation can be produced about the rump or thigh.

Secondary infections are commonplace and this self-inflicted trauma often leads to a vicious cycle of constant itching and scratching.

A careful examination of your pet will reveal the fleas in his hair. Fleas can be found in greatest numbers around the head, the rump and the base of the tail.

To control fleas, both the pet and his environment must be treated.

Commercial powders or spray insecticides will remove fleas from your pet's body.

The application of an antipruritic ointment to treat those itching hot spots and to help avoid secondary infection and oral administration of a sedative should relieve much of his discomfort.

Although you may be able to completely remove fleas and ticks from your pet's body, he can become reinfested within a few weeks if outside breeding places are not controlled.

In severe cases, your pet's old bedding should be discarded and the surrounding area should be sprayed with a disinfectant. Other areas where your pet spends considerable time should be treated similarly.

There are preventive measures you can take to control flea and tick problems:

Provide your pet with a clean, dry environment.

Give him several thorough examinations prior to the flea and tick season.

Take immediate corrective steps when you observe the first sign of irritation.

In extreme situations when your pet becomes overwrought by itching, scratching and numerous infections, I recommend that you take him immediately to a veterinarian for concentrated professional treatment.

Only one hundred years have elapsed between the first transcontinental railroad and the landing of men on the moon.

Many staunch environmentalists appear undisturbed when confronted with the threat that Federal orders to control or end air and water pollution by established industrial plants - may indeed cause the plants to close down and the workers to lose their jobs. Some who express great individual concern for the human environment declare flatly that such industries "should close down."

This issue reached the Floor of the House of Representatives recently in the consideration of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1972. One portion of this bill was intended to take care of these industries which, for environmental reasons, were required to close down - or to move their operations elsewhere.

Since the loss of such industrial plants and the ensuing unemployment would be the result of Federal orders intended to improve the environment, it was considered equitable that Federal payments of unemployment compensation, as well as mortgage and rental assistance and other benefits, should be made available to those who may experience losses and are deprived of their jobs.

The annual cost of such a novel unemployment compensation and benefit program is estimated to be $100 million.

The House of Representatives gave its approval to this new Federal program of benefits occasioned by environmental clean-up orders. Under the bill's provisions, wage earners and salaried employees would benefit with individual benefits not to exceed 60 percent of the compensation previously received, or the maximum payable under the unemployment compensation law of the State in which the recipient resides, whichever is greater. In addition, the program also provides making mortgage and rental payments, as well as travel expenses, where employees are compelled to move in order to find employment.

In this legislative initiative, the nation is experiencing an aspect of environmental clean-up, which is bound to expand and become part of an overall public effort to improve the human environment. In the present measure, there is evidence of duplication with state unemployment compensation programs as well as the danger of deliberate efforts to secure financial benefit from such a federal relief program.

The costs of improving the human environment may require no more than the installation of anti-pollution devices to control air and water

CLC ADOPTS TENTATIVE BUDGET

At the College of Lake County Board of Trustees meeting, Tuesday, August 22, 1972, the following action was taken:

The legal tentative budget for CLC was adopted. The Board established September 26, 1972 as the date for the Budget Hearing. The budget will be available for public inspection until that time in the college Administrative Offices or the Office of Community Relations at CLC. The Board also adopted the 1972 Tax Levies.

In faculty negotiations, Board adoptions included a 5.5 per cent salary raise and a three-year tenure for 1972-73. These matters then went before the faculty organization, College of Lake County local Professions Association, Thursday morning, August 24, for ratification. A salary schedule for increases in pay of classified office personnel was also approved.

A resolution was adopted acknowledging service of the late Roy Jones, first chairman of the Lake County Community College Association and a founding father of the college.

Finally, a progress report on construction of the permanent campus was given by Edward Bartz, Jr., representative of Hellmuth Obata & Kassabaum, Inc., architectural firm. He reported that most of the sewers and underground work is nearly complete. The structured steel work is scheduled to begin on October 1. In addition, the new baseball diamond should be ready for use by spring, 1973.

pollution from some industrial plants. In such cases the expense of installing anti-pollution devices usually will be passed on to the consumer in the form of additional product cost. However, in other cases, when an order from the Environmental Protection Agency means simply that an industrial plant must close, it appears that the public will be required to bear part of the losses which are experienced by both labor and management employees.

The lesson may be hard to learn, but it should be well understood that in most cases, it is the public - the consumer and the taxpayer - who will pay. Congressman John Dent of Pennsylvania put the issue bluntly in these words:

"Environmental expense should be paid for by the Government....They are in the public domain."

And there you are!

MC KAY AND OTTO WIN WILMOT FIFTIES

The 1972 season of IRA Super modified stock car racing at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot, Wisconsin wound up on Saturday night September 2 with Denny McKay, Elgin and Roger Otto, Burlington, each winning one of the 50 lap season championship heats.

The drivers displayed their greatest skills in driving on the clay oval that for the third week was rougher than the proverbial freshly plowed field. Rains again left the track soft and throughout the race, huge mounds of clay were gouged from the surface.

After the racing, many drivers wished they had left their cars on the trailers till a better track was available, but this was the season championship and no driver wanted to miss the chance to race in the all important season windup.

In the first 50, Butch Bergsma, Richmond left off for just one lap from his pole starting position and then McKay took over.

The rough track soon took its toll as Aaron Solsrud completed only 10 laps; Jim Sullivan 12; Butch Bergsma 18 and Champion Johnny Reimer 22 laps. Whitey Harris lost a clutch on the 36th lap after being up as close as sixth.

At the end, Paul Cameron, Round Lake was second and several times challenged McKay. Jim Fiscus finally moved around the only rookie in the starting field, Jim Moulis, Antioch on the 35th lap but on the 48th lap, Fiscus spun in front of Moulis and Moulis stopped but got going before Fiscus to take third. Fiscus recovered in time to get fourth and then it was Roger Otto.

The starting field for the second 50 laps was determined by drawing and McKay looked like a repeat winner as he drew the pole position. However, Carl Schultz took the lead from the outside of the first row with McKay dropping to third behind Otto who had started fourth. On the 11th lap Schultz lost a wheel and as Otto slowed, McKay shot into the lead followed by Otto, Larry Leach, Elkhorn, Jim Bozeman, Waukegan and Johnny Reimer.

Bozeman moved around Otto on the 18th lap and was putting the pressure on McKay who was now behind the first of the trailing cars, Dick Aissen, McHenry. Aissen observed the lay-over flag signal and then the leaders came up behind Jim Moulis who was loosed up in a heated sprint with Dick Dustin and Jim Fiscus. In spite of repeated lay-over flag signals, none of the closely bunched cars moved off the grove and finally on the 38th lap McKay dove to the inside in the first turn with Bozeman sweeping wide around Moulis. When the two cars tried to regain the grove, they collided sending McKay flipping end over end over the hood of Bozeman's car which belched steam from a punctured radiator. McKay was bruised and shaken up but with car owner Randy Marescalco, Kenosha, later made it to the Officials stand to collect the lions share of the lap prize money. He led 77 of the total 100 laps of season championship racing.

On restart, Bozeman was back with a less than sharply performing engine due to the leaky radiator and Roger Otto took over the lead for the remaining distance. Larry Leach was third behind Bozeman and then it was Cameron and Mike Schissel. Overall winner was Otto then Cameron; McKay Bozeman; Moulis; Leach; Fiscus; Schissel; Dick Dustin and Ron Marish.

Johnny Reimer wound up only 34 points ahead of runnerup Otto as he earned his second straight IRA Wilmot Championship for car owner Fred Nielsen, Lake Villa. Last year he was more than 160 points ahead of runner up Otto as he earned his second straight IRA Wilmot Championship for car owner Fred Nielsen, Lake Villa. Last year he was more than 160 points ahead of runner up Whitey Harris.

Harris dropped back to 5th in the final standings after running an alternate car in the second 50 lap heat. That car lasted only 9 laps giving him a 17th finishing position.

IRA Sportsman stock car Champion at Wilmot, Jim

Carmon Menzardo, Antioch is fast making a name for himself in the super modified stock car racing at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot on Saturday night. Here he carries the checkered flag following an impressive win recently in a heat race. Last Saturday night he won the 15 lap semi-feature.

REIMER WINS FINAL IRA GENEVA FEATURE

Johnny Reimer, who has already won again the IRA Championship for 1972 at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot and here at Lake Geneva earned his first Geneva Raceway Championship, won the 30 lap feature for the modifieds by taking a last lap win away from Roger Otto, Burlington.

Otto had taken the lead on the 8th lap from Gary Schaffer, Milwaukee who led from the start. Whitey Harris had been up to third in the race when Reimer was still fourth but he went wide on the third turn and both Reimer and Ron Bergsma got through. Ron Marish also later moved around Harris.

Johnny Olson, Round Lake won a ten lap heat race and the 15 lap semi-feature to be the only double winner of the night as the IRA modifieds ended the 1972 season. Other heat race winners were Joel Reimer, Milwaukee; Maish and Otto.

The IRA Sportsman stock

cmelak, won the 15 lap Sportsman stock car feature to take the final checkered flag of 1972 at Wilmot.

The attendance, reduced by the cold weather that dipped the thermometer to the low 40's, was 3372 and the purse and lap prize money amounted to $4250.00 cars took the green flag and raced non-stop in their 30 lap season championship with Ron Fryer, South Milwaukee, holding off Jack Ashenbrenner, Hales Corners to the win. For Ashenbrenner, it was the final time for him to defend the title he won in 1971. He received an ovation from the crowd as Ron Fryer carried the victory checker around. Joe Gresk, Franklin; Ken Otto, Burlington and Jim Cmelak, Okautchee were next in the finish. Cmelak becomes the overall 1972 IRA Sportsman stock Car champion for 1972. He won the track championship at Wilmot but was only sixth in point standings at the Lake Geneva Raceway where Ashenbrenner retained at least that much of his 1971 Title for the 1972 season.

SANDBERG: A VARIETY OF HATS

Antioch Varsity Track Coach Gerry Sandberg is the quiet sort of dedicated man who seldom draws headlines because of his quiet manner, but all the same makes himself known as a dedicated competitor. And compete he does.

Sandberg wears a variety of hats: coach, husband, educator and last year donned the headset and responsibilities as head coach of the Lake County entry in the Central States Football League.

The sandy haired, athletic 29 year old said that being involved in so many activities at one time did not pose any great problems for him.

"I've always been this way - an active person," he said. "I don't mean to say the temptation isn't there to just lay on the sofa and watch a sporting event, but if I had my choice between being a participant or a spectator, I'd compete every time."

Looking at his history, Sandberg is indeed a competitor. He served a four year hitch in the Marine Corps following graduation from high school and then entered Northern Illinois University. He graduated in 1968 with a degree in physical education and then spent a year at a small high school before coming to Antioch.

Sandberg said Antioch had been very good to him. "I've been here four years now and they've been good years. Besides being varsity track coach, he was the sophomore football coach and helped in several other activities before the athletic program was cut back early this spring.

"It's really a shame to see the program cut, but I guess it had to be done." However, he noted that it would take a minimum of three to five years, by his speculation, for the program to get back to the level it was when the cuts are returned.

"If the entire sports program is cut it could take ten or fifteen years to return to the level we were at last year."

However, it would appear that money is not a big motivator in his own life as a player. The Rifles pay as little as $25 a game and when costs of travel and gas are taken out he said "you may be paying them to play."

And yet he said the caliber of play is very high. "We have a player who competed in Canada for five years. He said the hitting last week (West Allis) was the hardest he'd ever seen - or felt."

In addition to playing flanker, Sandberg served as head coach of the Rifles last year compiling a 7-1 record and a second place berth in the league.

Sandberg noted a difference in attitude between being a player and a coach. "As a player you have the pressure to excel at your position and help the team win. But as head coach you must be concerned with all aspects of the game - offensive and defensive. You take it more personally."

The likeable coach, who neither drinks nor smokes said that he tries to keep in the best of shape and in addition to football, swims, rides a bike and runs.

"To me the greatest asset you have is your body. You have to make the most out of it and develop it to its fullest capability. You owe it to yourself, your wife and family."

With that he seemed slightly embarrassed, as if not to pressure the reporter who sat next to him chain smoking Pall Mall's, but that's the name of the game folks, pressure - and how you handle it.

Loading and unloading children at school can be dangerous.

Children opening car doors on the traffic side can become targets for-or causes of accidents. Always pick up and unload children on the school side of the street. And when driving in a school zone, be alert for children getting out of parked cars.

HUMELL HUMBLER GENEVA STOCK STOCKS

Ray Humell won the HATO Racing Sportsman stock car 25 lap feature at the Lake Geneva Raceway Saturday night as he outclassed a talent laden field of drivers.

He worked his way up and around Gil Schilts and then leader Fran Baumgarden on the 23rd lap. Baumgarden went out after being passed and that moved Larry Hicks to second followed by Paul Croddock; Bob Delany and Jerry Straube.

Arleigh Kostrowski won the semi-feature and a heat race. Other heat races were won by Phil Bjerning; Baumgarden and Bob Peterson.

Ken Heinzpeter, George Wyroch and Paul Anderson, all strong feature race contenders, had problems with their cars and were not able to race in the main event.

Harold Skogstad won the Spectator feature over Bob Bayer; Chris Ducey; Jim Vangerweff and Chris Benet. Benet also won a heat as did Larry Tarmino; Ken Haack and then Tarmino returned to win the semi-feature.

The ladies powder puff race in Sportsman stock cars was won by Irene Suchor, McHenry ahead of Toni Eppers, Brighton and Carolyn Neff, McHenry.

This Sunday night at the Lake

Geneva Raceway, the spectator stocks and modifieds in open competition racing will be in action. It is expected that the open competition will bring in several cars that have not raced at Lake Geneva this season.

Saturday nights will continue to feature the sportsman and spectator stocks plus powder puff racing.

ROWDEN - BOYD PLAYERS OF WEEK

Linebacker Don Rowden was selected by the coaches of the Lake County Rifles Professional Football Team as the defensive player of the week in the Rifles 23 to 10 victory Saturday, August 26th over the Racine Raiders.

Clifford Boyd, a member of the Rifles specialty team was selected as the teams offensive player of the game. The victory over Racine gave the Rifles sole position of first place in the Southern Division of the Central States Football League.

Coach Jesse Vail said Rowden was selected for his overall defensive play. His performance included the interception of a pass that he returned 30 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter.

Boyd ran one kickoff back 30 yards to the 40 yard line where the fourth person to hit him finally managed to bring him to the ground. When the second half began, Boyd returned another kickoff 37 yards to the Rifles 47 yard line. Later in the same period Boyd returned a punt 12 yards to the Racine 47 yard line on a play in which it appeared he would be tackled the moment he caught the ball.

NAVY NIGHT AT SATURDAY RIFLES GAME

There will be plenty of pre game and half time excitement and beauty when the Lake County Rifles host the West Allis Spartans on Navy Night at 8 p.m. this Saturday at Carmel Field on Highway 176 in Mundelein.

There also will be plenty of excitement on the field as both professional football teams are undefeated going into the second month of the league season.

But the real action will start a half hour before game time when the Navy Band from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station presents a pre game concert. The Navy Color Squad will raise the American flag shortly before kickoff.

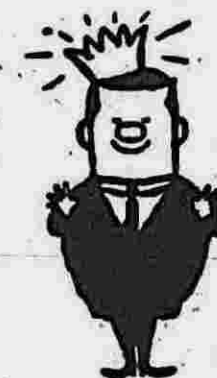

Then at half time the famed Navy Drum and Bugle Corp will perform and the Navy Queen, the most beautiful girl on the Navy base, will be introduced and presented with a bouquet of flowers.

That is not all. For the Rifles booming cannon will welcome the Navy and sound the start of the game with the roar of a shot loud enough to match the noise that might come from the mounted guns of a battleship. Navy recruiters will be present to talk to young men and women who wish to explore the possibility of making the Navy their career.

All military personnel with proper identification will be admitted to the game at half price. The same half price ticket will apply for this game only to all residents of the Zion and Grayslake High School districts. The half price invitation is extended to residents of these two school districts because their school football teams and coaches will be the special guests of the Rifles.

The Rifles management said that more families than ever before are watching the Rifles games this season, apparently because watching professional football outdoors is becoming known as a wholesome way for a family to spend a Saturday night together.
